

The amendments to the TCPA by the FCC carry significant consequences for associations and the way we offer programs, products and services by fax. The new rules that require us to obtain a signed written consent will be very burdensome for our association and also for our members. Please remove the proposal that eliminates the prior "established business relationship" language so that our members are not covered with more papers to shuffle through and sign and this burden is removed from our association. Thank you